Social work resistance Ω : Care for change

In 2026, the School of Social Work will hold its lustrum conference in Dubrovnik, Croatia. We warmly invite academics, students, practitioners, service users and peer support workers.

Additional events will be held on August 31st and September 4th, creating the opportunity to participate in a five-day programme.

Main Topics:

- Social work in the face of global crises
- Safeguarding human rights
- Working together with service users and experts by experience
- Caring and inclusive communities
